In general terms, the hey-day of UK FtF Diplomacy was from the mid-80s to the mid-90s. Occasional Mathorice of occurred when a UK Con was hosting a EDC or a WDC, but by and large the FtF Tournaments declined sharply after 2000. Nick Kinzett's article reprinted below in this issue is a pretty good analysis of why the decline happened. There were also regional trophies from time to time (Illandstathishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmentalishmenta

As far as | can tell, the first UK National Diplomacy Championship that actually called itself that was Mastred Colh in 1981 and was won by David Long (out of a field of 63 players The spike in the number of players in 1993 is because the number includes those who played in regional qualifiers for the NDC, even if they did not attend the finals at MidCon. Regional tournaments would be a single round, either at a con or housecon in the nine months leading up to MidCon, the game terminating in 1911. You could play in more than one regional tournament. If you don't pre-qualify for the NDC then you can still play at MidCon, but if you win you will only collect the MidCon Trophy, not the NDC itself. Regional qualifiers were announced for Exeter, Oxford, Burton on Trent, Brighton, Birmingham and Nottingham (all held within other games cons) and other housecons were also added soon thereafter.
